Your Brief

The sporty, "up and at 'em" Games Team comprises a team of 5-6 fun & engaging youth workers, who'll work to ensure the utmost pleasure of our young guests – Games & Activities includes a range of outdoor games such as giant jenga, giant connect 4, giant chess and other activities on offer throughout the day such as henna tattooing and hair braiding.

Arriving onsite

Please arrive onsite at your allocated time and register yourself at the Volunteer Concierge. Here you will collect your lanyard before reporting to the Games & Activities Supervisor for briefing. Please ensure to get your 'gold scar' body art tattoo done by the make-up team before 9:00am.

High Level of Interaction

Working with Youth

Mostly Outdoors

The Games & Activities Team contributes by...

- Supporting the enjoyment of the young guests at 'MindTreasure 2020' by leading safe and enjoyable day of entertainment and engaging with those who don't have anyone to connect with.
- Maintaining a safe and fun-filled environment in which to responsibly host or support a wide selection of youth games such as Giant Jenga, Giant Connect 4, Giant Chess and other activities such as the the Henna Tattoo Tent or Hair Braiding Station.
- Setting up and preparing the youth activities areas, ensuring stocked with plenty of sunscreen and water for all.
- Supervising youth and overseeing games/activities to ensure all young persons are safe and enjoy themselves.
- Remembering to offer youth copious water and sunscreen throughout the day.
- Maintaining a tidy and hazard-free area throughout the event.
- Disallowing removal of any of the games equipment. Also ensuring that the youth do not engage in any disrespectful behaviours towards one another or staff such as swearing, shouting, hitting etc.
- Reporting all incidents and near-misses to the Games Supervisor, no matter how small.
- Referring any medical situations to the St. John Ambulance First Aid station outside.
- Referring any unsafe situations to Security.
- Packing up the games equipment as instructed (approximately 4:45pm).

Having fun with Games Team Members!
